OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

PRESS COMMUNIQUE.

In consultation with the Provincial Governments, the Central Government have had under consideration the question of removal of the ban on the Rashtriya Swayam Sewak Sangh. The factors governing the problem clearly emerged during the discussion which the leader of the R.S.S.S. organisation had with Sardar Patel in October last year. In brief they were that the R.S.S.S. should function under a written and published constitution, restricting its activities to the cultural sphere, abjuring violence and secrecy, profession, loyalty to the Constitution of India and the National Flag, and providing for a democratic organization. The public is already familiar with the history of the break-down of these talks and the course which events took thereafter. In spite of this, Government's attitude to this organisation was never prompted by any spirit of vindictiveness and when certain non-official gentlemen approached them with requests to interview the R.S.S.S. leader in jail with a view to persuading him to fulfil the above-mentioned conditions, Government offered them facility to do so. In March this year, the R.S.S.S. leader wrote to Government forwarding a draft constitution, the terms of which were examined by Government in consultation with the Provinces. The Government of India conveyed to the R.S.S.S. leader their reactions on the draft as forwarded to him and he has now generally accepted the suggestions made by the Government of India and the clarifications made to him indicate that the relevant provisions of the constitution are intended to be worked in the spirit contemplated by the Government of India. In particular, the R.S.S.S. leader's undertakings to make the loyalty to the Union Constitution and respect for the National Flag more explicit in the constitution of the R.S.S.S. and to provide clearly that persons believing in or resorting to violent and secret methods have no place in the Sangh. The R.S.S.S. leader has also affirmed that the constitution will be worked on a democratic basis; in particular the office of the Sarsangh Chalak would be elective in that the successor would be nominated with the consent of the then Karya Kari Mandal. It would be open to any member of the Sangh to leave it at any time without breaking the pledge and the admission of minors will be subject to the option of the guardian to withdraw his ward under a written request sent to the Sangh authorities.

In the light of the modifications and clarifications given by the R.S.S.S. leader, the Government of India have come to the conclusion that the R.S.S.S. organisation should be given an opportunity to function as a democratic cultural organisation, owing loyalty to the Indian Constitution and recognising the National Flag, eschewing secrecy and abjuring violence. Indeed, Government feel that under a constitution embodying these principles and worked in the right spirit, no reasonable objection can be taken to such functioning. They have accordingly decided to withdraw the ban on the organisation in the Centrally Administered areas and to release as soon as possible all R.S.S.S. men at present under detention or undergoing sentences of imprisonment in connection with R.S.S.S. activities, and have requested Provincial Govern-
